Mr. W. Roy Breg
Executive Secretary
Allied Youth
1700 N Street, N.W.
Washington 6, D. C.

Dear Mr. Breg:

I wish to acknowledge receipt of your letter of May 26, 1947 relative to [REDACTED] 25X1A9a

25X1A9a [REDACTED] was employed in this organization on a temporary appointment for a period of sixty days. During this period he proved to be a very bright, energetic, industrious, loyal and capable employee. His immediate supervisor has given him an outstanding rating in the efficiency report just submitted. I do not feel that [REDACTED] 25X1A9a is over sensitive. He was employed here in a capacity where he worked with, and supervised, several employees with much more actual experience than [REDACTED] 25X1A9a personally has had. Despite this fact he was successful in gaining the complete loyalty, cooperation and friendship of both his superiors and subordinates.

25X1A9a [REDACTED] 25X1A9a is certainly an ambitious young man. I also believe that he is very practical. It is my opinion that the chances of [REDACTED] 25X1A9a becoming a permanent employee are good, provided the employment offered him is challenging and offers an opportunity for self improvement and advancement.

It is my opinion that [REDACTED] 25X1A9a would be a valuable employee in your organization.

Very truly yours,
